

IMPOSING

Ceremony Conducted by Bishop O'Donoghue at Convent of Good Shepherd.

Two Sisters After Two Years in the Order Make Perpetual Vows.

Work of the Sisters Praised and Their New Undertaking Commended.

FATHER CRONIN WAS PRESENT

For the first time since he has been Bishop of Louisville the Right Rev. Denis O'Donoghue, D. D., was able to officiate at an important event in the Convent of the Good Shepherd, on last Sunday. The Bishop, although he had several other engagements for the day, spent most of the morning at the monastery, the first one established by the order in the United States, and from there he came to the convent at 8 o'clock. He was assisted by the Rev. Engelbert Schmitt, chaplain of the convent, and the Rev. Father Denis, C. P., celebrant; Rev. Father Fabian, C. P., deacon; Rev. Father Leander, C. P., sub-deacon. The second veppers of the feast will be sung at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. All churches and chapels under the care of the Passionist fathers possess the privilege of the "Portiuncula Indulgence" on the feast day of the saintly founder, April 28. A plenary indulgence may be gained by all who visit the church or chapel from 3:30 Sunday afternoon until sundown Monday evening. This may be gained "toties quoties," i. e., as often as one visits the chapel. The usual conditions must be complied with—confession and communion in any church, visits to the Passionist chapel and prayers for the intentions of the Holy Father. The blessing with the relic of St. Paul will be given throughout the entire day. The ladies of the parish will furnish coffee and sandwiches free to all visitors. Other refreshments may be obtained on the grounds.

The feast is a gala day for all clients of the great St. Paul of the Cross, a day of devotion when many look for actual prodigies, and it is true to say that St. Paul shows himself a "wonder-worker," and many accounts of marvelous cures could be related. The history of St. Paul is too well known to need retelling. All friends and clients of the Passionists know of his sanctity and of the great religious order he founded, and the missionary work of the fathers is known far and wide. Visitors by the hundreds throng the beautiful and spacious grounds of the convent all day on the twenty-eighth, venturing from far and near in Kentucky and Indiana—and for all it is a holiday, one that indeed is a spiritual holiday, for St. Paul never fails to reward the faith and love of his devoted clients. The Passionist fathers cordially invite all their friends and benefactors to enjoy their hospitality on this great day and to share with them in the tribute to be paid to the memory and the virtues of this great saint of modern times—St. Paul of the Cross.

The whole ceremony was very beautiful and was pleasing to Bishop O'Donoghue. The two Sisters who took the solemn vows have been in the convent on Eighth street for several years. They are natives of Cincinnati and in the world were known as the Sisters of the Magdalens. The new undertaking of the Sisters will be for the care of negro female infants and girls. It will be an industrial school. Inmates will be received without regard to their religious belief or the belief of their parents. But 5 per cent. of the nuns of Louisville are in the Catholic faith, but this does not matter to the Sisters. It is the history of this kind of reformatory work that Sisters of the Good Shepherd are the most expert in this line of work, and necessarily so because they have been engaged in it for more than 252 years, the order having been established at Angers, France, in 1661. The convent on Eighth street is now devoted to the reclamation of colored girls and some infants, but the accommodations are insufficient, hence the necessity of building a new monastery. In the meantime the work for white girls will continue unabated. The Sisters carry on their work so quietly that the general public has very little idea of its scope.

Since the Sisters first established themselves in Louisville in 1843 their work has extended to more than thirty other cities throughout the country, their monasteries in New York, St. Louis, Cincinnati and New Orleans far outstripping in extent the two convents in Louisville.

JUBILIARANS.

Last Sunday in St. Vincent Ferrer's church, New York City, two noted Dominican priests, Very Rev. C. H. McKenna and Very Rev. H. F. Lilly, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary as members of the great presiding order. Father McKenna, who is well remembered in St. Louis Bertrand's parish, is one of the best known missionaries in the United States. Cardinal Gibbons has called him the greatest preacher in our country, while his work as the apostle of the Holy Name is monumental. Father Lilly is also a preacher of distinction. For forty-three years he has been entrusted with some of the most responsible positions in the order.

PASSIONISTS.

Celebration of the Feast of St. Paul of the Cross.

Next Monday the feast of St. Paul of the Cross will be celebrated with impressive ceremonial at the Sacred Heart Retreat on the Newburg road. Solemn veppers will be sung tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The masses on the feast day will be at 5:30, 6:30, 7 and 10 o'clock. The last will be a solemn high mass, with the Very Rev. Father Denis, C. P., celebrant; Rev. Father Fabian, C. P., deacon; Rev. Father Leander, C. P., sub-deacon. The second veppers of the feast will be sung at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. INDIANAPOLIS.

Mrs. Mary Finn Summoned to Her Heavenly Home.

Mrs. Mary Finn, 1401 North Albama street, Indianapolis, the widow of John Finn, who preceded her in death over twenty years ago, has gone to her eternal rest. During her long life she showed a deep devotion to God's will and when her call came it was answered with the Christian spirit and fortitude that marked her life. Mrs. Finn was a native of County Clare, Ireland, and came to this country with her mother and brothers when a little girl. For over forty-five years she had been a resident of Indiana, where she was widely known and respected. Mrs. Finn is survived by five sons, two daughters and five grandchildren. Her sons are Luke Finn, of Spaulding, Va.; Dan Finn, of Silverton, Texas; John Timothy and William Finn, of Indianapolis; Miss Wanda Finn, also of Indianapolis, and Mrs. Mary Speak, of Salem, Ill., are her daughters. John Mooney, her brother; Mrs. Rankin, a granddaughter, and several nephews and nieces survive. The funeral of Mrs. Finn will be held in the cathedral at Indianapolis, the Right Rev. Bishop Chartrand and three priests officiating at the solemn obsequies. Bishop Chartrand preached the sermon, paying high tribute to the memory and life of a good Christian woman.

FORTY HOURS.

The Forty Hours' prayer will begin tomorrow, the fifth Sunday after Easter, in St. James church in the Highlands. This will be the last time these impressive devotions will be held in the old church, as the magnificent new edifice being erected by Father Willett will be dedicated and occupied before this time next year. The first of the services will take place at the high mass tomorrow morning, and during the continuation Father Willett will be assisted by a number of the city priests.

AND WHY NOT?

The New England Journal, one of our Eastern Protestant papers, had this to say in a recent issue: "There is one church which makes religion an essential in education, and that is the Catholic church. We are no prophet, but it does seem to us that Catholics, retaining their religious teaching, and our best schools, will gaze upon the Catholic crosses all over New England when the meeting houses will be turned into barns."

WORK TOLD.

One Hundred and Three Candidates Join Young Men's Institute.

Great Initiation Concludes With Grand Banquet at Seelbach Hotel.

Bishop O'Donoghue and Mayor Hend Give Young Men Advice.

ATTENDED MASS AT CATHEDRAL

At the joint initiation held last Sunday afternoon at Mackin Council's home on Twenty-sixth street a class of 103 candidates was received into the Young Men's Institute. Trinity Council leading with fifty-eight, Mackin presenting twenty-seven and Unity Council of New Albany eighteen. In the morning the candidates attended a special mass at the Cathedral and received holy communion in a body. Rev. Father Rock was the celebrant of the mass, and preached an earnest but brief sermon, pointing out to the young men their duty to the church and the Y. M. I. Coming so soon after their Easter and annual communions many were not present and the attendance not what it otherwise would have been.

The meeting in the afternoon was called to order by Frank Adams, President of Mackin Council, and at 3 o'clock the degree team, captained by Dan Hennessy, had all their paraphernalia in readiness for the grand exemplification that followed. The new members comprised a splendid body of young men, and the fusion of the new blood into the three Gallic Cities created no small excitement. The perilous language of some of the German journals and the grave words of the German Foreign Minister forced everybody to realize with some surprise and horror the volcano of bitter hatreds and fiery excitement which underlies the present peaceful surface of European life.

The postponement of the home rule and Welsh bills until after Whit Sunday holidays created no surprise. There was little exasperation in the Irish ranks. Redmond fully recognized that a number of small measures, rendered necessary by unexpected events, such as the hunger strike by the suffragettes, take up legitimately every second of the time till Whit Sunday to clear the way for home rule later. The postponement has its full assent. We resume the home rule battle in June, but it will be short and decisive, as provisions of the Parliament do not permit any amendment to the bill except with the universal assent of both Houses. There exists no necessity for lengthened debates on the Irish or Welsh bill. It is doubtful that more than a week will be allowed for debating each bill. Of course both will be carried by a practically the same majority as in the last session. We will then await the action of the House of Lords with curiosity rather than apprehension. What the House of Lords will propose nobody yet knows, probably not even the House of Commons, but the present impression is that no compromise will be suggested and that we will pass the home rule next year in spite of the House of Lords without serious change and proceed immediately to the organization of the new Irish Government.

Reverting to the conscription movement while the bulk of the Liberal party, the entire Labor party and nearly all the workingmen would revolt against compulsory service in any shape, some powerful Liberal leaders are known to be less hostile to the present impression is that no compromise will be suggested and that we will pass the home rule next year in spite of the House of Lords without serious change and proceed immediately to the organization of the new Irish Government.

Lloyd-George shows a diminution of strain by reappearing in his old position, the House of Commons, and this week exhibited more his unequal powers of reconciling differences, winning enemies and passing his bills. Next week he will rush again to the forefront of the English political stage in introducing the budget. The Liberals' effort to defeat all future attempts at snap divisions by a pledge to remain in the House every day until August has made great progress and the Minister for War gives official sanction by inviting the members of the committee of the new organization to dine with the Prime Minister next Tuesday. The effects of this new movement already are visible in a better attendance of the Liberals and all this week Liberal majorities reached usually more than a hundred. The Tories show a general mood of depression and disension by absencing themselves and rarely more than half of their number now attend. Their hopelessness was accentuated once more this week by a new outbreak. The disputes among the free traders, free traders and food lovers have raised an immense outcry against the choice of the free trader candidates for the Tory seat and Garvin in Pall Mall and the Morning Post is conducting an active campaign. In short, there is as yet no sign whatever that there is a closing up of old quarrels among the Tories, which they proclaimed some weeks ago as already settled, and this tends to increase their lethargy and lack of hope or interest in the present conditions.

P. H. Keefe, of Pittsburgh, spoke on "Our New Jurisdiction," and gave it as his opinion that, under the new arrangement, the organization would grow and be placed in a position where it could do more good. The speaker said he was convinced that the young Catholics needed the assistance and guidance of such organization as the Y. M. I. and cited an incident in his own life when he felt the need of such an organization. In speaking on the toast, "Faith and Fraternity," the Very Rev. James P. Cronin said the two must go together, that a Catholic fraternity can not possibly exist without the Catholic faith. The latter was the bond which should unite the members, and if it were the right kind of Catholic faith it would make them irresistible in their purposes. Once that faith was weakened the fraternal agitation would go to pieces, said Father Cronin, who concluded by saying that the motive power of the Y. M. I. always must be the active Catholic faith.

The last speaker on the program was C. A. Slinger, of Indianapolis, Grand Secretary. He gave a short history of the institute, saying the organization was just the thing needed to keep the Catholic youth in the bounds which were so essential in the moral, social and intellectual uplift of the members.

GOES OVER.

Unexpected Events Take Time of England's House of Commons.

Home Rule Bill Postponed Until After the Whit Sunday Holidays.

Has the Full Assent of Chairman Redmond and Nationalist Party.

ACTION CAUSED NO SURPRISE

Cabling the papers last Sunday the Hon. T. P. O'Connor, M. P., first noted the intense excitement on the continent in contrast with the sluggish apathy in England. Though the incident at Nancy is approaching a peaceful settlement, it gave all Europe an unpleasant shock that a trifle of that sort could create such excitement. The perilous language of some of the German journals and the grave words of the German Foreign Minister forced everybody to realize with some surprise and horror the volcano of bitter hatreds and fiery excitement which underlies the present peaceful surface of European life.

FUSION

Bone of Contention Between the Louisville Herald and Evening Post.

Former Unwilling For Knott to Get Foothold in Progressive Party.

Splendid Entries Being Made For Coming Democratic Primary.

KNIGHT BEING WELL SUPPORTED

A furious fight is now going on in local politics between the Louisville Herald and the Evening Post, Editor Knott, of the latter, clamoring for a Fusion ticket, while the Herald is working strenuously for a straight Progressive ticket with a go-it-alone policy, the Herald, as the official organ and champion of that party, being unwilling to share some of its prestige with the Evening Post, probably knowing the experience of others in the past with Knott, whose motto is rule or ruin in any party. Those familiar with his methods know that if he can not dictate the nominations, secure the city printing and absorb any loose pie lying around, that he will kick over the traces and denounce anybody and everything. Knott's idea of fusion being that it will be the fuse from which all things are started. The Post knows no party lines where the Post's interests are concerned, supporting Beckham a Democrat today, Grinstead a Republican tomorrow, and Roosevelt a Progressive the next day, and at the same time being ready to sacrifice either one without a tremor of conscience.

The many entries for the Democratic primary show conclusively which way the wind is blowing. These candidates knowing that with many entries the Democratic ticket is sure to be a strong one from top to bottom. Many of those announcing are young men with clean records and men of ability. Among those are Charles H. Knight, candidate for State Senator in the Thirty-sixth district, his splendid record in the last Legislature winning him many supporters, and he now has the influential backing of the prominent taxpayers and business men in his district, his friends predicting a record breaking majority in the primary and general election. Sam Robertson, in the Thirty-eighth Senatorial district, has no opposition thus far, and it is believed that he will have none for the Democratic nomination, being a local edition of Olie James in the Democratic ranks.

George B. (Cack) Barrett is without opposition as a candidate for the Thirtieth district, his splendid record in the last Legislature winning him many supporters, and he now has the influential backing of the prominent taxpayers and business men in his district, his friends predicting a record breaking majority in the primary and general election. Sam Robertson, in the Thirty-eighth Senatorial district, has no opposition thus far, and it is believed that he will have none for the Democratic nomination, being a local edition of Olie James in the Democratic ranks.

One of the surprises of the campaign thus far is the strength shown by Dr. H. E. Meehling in the race for Coroner, the Doctor's many friends in local athletic circles being busy forming campaign clubs in his interest, assisted by his campaigning, the Doctor visiting all of the local clubs in turn.

Watch for the many announcements of Aldermen and Councilmen this coming week, as the signatures for petitions will have to be secured beginning with May 3, next Saturday, and there is many an aspirant for both boards. B. J. Campbell, James Treasay, Joseph Overberg, Fred Schwenker and Fred Leeger are sure to run for re-election as Aldermen, while Tom Dolan (of skating ordinance fame), E. J. Parker, of like distinction, M. J. Dermott, T. J. Lawrence, Charles Finnegan, Jerry Kink, T. J. Garvey and Al Steiger will try again for the lower board on their good records.

WINS MOBILE BIIDE.

Accompanying a beautiful picture of Miss Mary Becker Hagan, was the following, which will be of interest to many in Louisville, taken from the Mobile Register of last Sunday:

"Her marriage to a young Kentuckian will take place in the month of bride and roses. Miss Hagan is the eldest of the three very lovely daughters of Major and Mrs. John Hagan, who are formally announcing her engagement today to Mr. Walter M. Higgins, formerly of Louisville, but who has been making his home in this city for the past three years. This sunny-haired girl is not only fair of face but possesses a nature as happy and sunny. She is one of a group of popular girls who made their debut three years ago, nearly every one in the crowd having a place in Cupid's court soon after serving as maids of honor in the carnival court the year of their debut. Her marriage is to be a June event, and ever since the engagement has been an open secret. Interested friends have whispered their congratulations to the prospective groom."

Walter M. Higgins is the son of William M. Higgins, editor of the Kentucky Irish American and is a native of this city. About three years ago he went South, becoming connected with the McDonnell wholesale house in Mobile, Ala., and being quite successful in his new field. His Louisville friends are extending their congratulations in advance of the happy union.

'ENJOYED.'

Catholic Knights Had Fine Programme Wednesday Night.

A large and appreciative audience thoroughly enjoyed the grand entertainment given by Branch 32, C. K. of A., in the old St. Vincent de Paul school hall, Shelby and Oak streets, Wednesday evening. In the audience were noted a number of clergymen and State and Central Committee officers, who expressed approval of the facts and figures set forth by Gen. Michael Reichert and John Kenney, of Jeffersonville, who were the speakers of the evening. President John Schald delivered the address of welcome on behalf of Branch 32, which brought the people together for their good, and then introduced Messrs. Reichert and Kenney, who appreciated the honor of speaking for Catholic Knighthood, and expressed delight over the presence of so many women, because none have been more benefited than the wives who have been protected from want and suffering by the Catholic Knights of America, who have paid out over $12,000.00 for the widow and orphan. They also dwelt upon the requirements for membership, which was within the reach of both parents and children. Figures were submitted showing the stability of the order and the many advantages secured to its members, and from this good results are expected. Biller's orchestra furnished the music, while the vaudeville programme was presented by Messrs. E. Hughes, J. M. Scharfberger, William Martin, Ben Speaker, Henry Hell, Peter Amling, Jake Graft and John Nuxol, who was the ideal Arizona nigger. Much credit is due Toney Hecken, Ben Beckman, Frank Gnadinger, Peter Huchelst, Frank Werner and Frank Velth for the work they have done in this instance for the Catholic Knights.

CHORAL UNION

Will Render Mendelssohn's "Elijah" For Orphans' Benefit.

The Catholic Choral Union is making great preparation for its forthcoming concert at the Shubert Masonic on Sunday evening, May 18, when they will produce Mendelssohn's grandest oratorio, "Elijah." Marcus Kellerman, the famous baritone of New York City, has been secured for the leading part. Local talent has been secured for the other solo parts, and possibly Miss Allyn Beck, of Cincinnati, may again assist the union. The entire proceeds of the concert will be given to St. Vincent, St. Joseph and St. Thomas Orphan Asylums. Admission prices will be fifty, seventy-five cents and $1. The full libretto of the oratorio in splendid form will be distributed free among the audience. An excellent orchestra has been engaged to assist the choralists of three hundred voices.

Prof. Anthony Molengraf is the Director of the Catholic Choral Union and Mrs. A. Molengraf is the pianist. The officers and Directors are:

President—Frank A. Geher.
Vice President—Dr. Peter S. Ganz.
Recording Secretary—Joseph F. Hubbuch.
Corresponding Secretary—Oscar Stutz, Jr.

Treasurer—Henry Basse.
Librarian—Arthur H. Hukeneck.
Directors—Rev. Ignatius Wilkens, O. F. M., Eugene J. Cooney, Col. John H. Whallen, Joseph J. Mueller, Prof. Bernard Dentinger and John A. Grueser.

Every effort is being made to make the oratorio a brilliant musical as well as a financial success.

HEARD FATHER CASULLY.

Windhorst Hall was crowded with people Sunday night who were eager to hear the great Jesuit preacher, Rev. Francis Casully, who delivered a powerful lecture on "Social Problems." Father Casully declared there are more murders, suicides, divorces, embezzlements, immorality and all-around crime in the United States than in the whole of Europe, and more paupers than in Japan; that this country's civilization is on the decline and could never face about until the cross as well as the flag rises above the public schools. "Forty years ago I played about these streets as a barefoot boy," he said, "when the town was pretty and humble. Now it is a majestic city, with a great many magnificent churches, schools and hospitals, but religion has not kept pace with its growth in every other respect, and this lies at the bottom of her chiefest ailment." The Rev. Father Casully came to Louisville on invitation of the Rev. Father O. P. Ackermann, pastor of St. Philip Neri church. A splendid musicale was given in connection with the lecture.

ASK GOV. COX.

Hon. James M. Cox, Governor of Ohio, has been invited by the University of Notre Dame to deliver the address to the graduates the coming June. The Governor will accept if his engagements permit.

EXTOLLED.

Hibernians Turn Out in Numbers and Hear Eloquent Speakers.

Friendship Meeting of Division 3 Pronounced a Grand Success.

Predicted That the Order Will Reach the Five Thousand Mark.

MISSED THE COUNTY PRESIDENT

In response to the invitation of Division 3 there was a great turnout of Hibernians at the friendship meeting held Monday night at Nineteenth and Portland avenue. The State Board, the County Board and every division in the city was well represented, and long before President Hugh Honrigan rapped for order the hall was taxed to its fullest capacity, extra chairs being required before many could be seated. President Hourigan opened the meeting and dispatched the regular order quickly. The benefit of the late Michael Donahue was allowed, after which memorial resolutions were adopted and the charter ordered draped for thirty days. The serious illness of Michael Sheehan, one of the founders and first Presidents of Division 3, was announced and prayers were recited for his recovery.

The routine business finished, State President P. J. Walsh was called to the chair, and after congratulating Division 3 for its truly Hibernian spirit and energy he briefly reviewed the history of the Ancient Order in Louisville. Good reports, he said, were coming from all parts of the country, and therefore Kentucky must be alive and active. Upon his suggestion the officers of Division 3 were appointed a committee to prepare statistics and matter for the history of the order now being compiled and to be off the press before the national convention which meets next year.

Thomas Tarry, President of Division 1, was introduced, and in response made a stirring plea for a consolidation of the four local divisions into one strong and compact body. He commended the spirit and enthusiasm that marked every undertaking of Division 3, and expressed the hope that the order would follow her example. Daniel O'Keefe was exceedingly brief in his remarks, contenting himself by inviting his hearers and their friends to be with Division 2 and have a good time Thursday night.

County President Connolly, who was on his wedding trip, was greatly missed, but his place well taken by County Secretary Thomas Langan, who congratulated Division 3 on its progress. In concluding he predicted that this would be the greatest year in the history of Hibernianism, as all the divisions were preparing classes for initiation.

Attorney L. J. Mackey, speaking for Division 3, after returning thanks to the visitors for their presence, made a strong and convincing argument for co-operation and organization. Paying compliment to the Kentucky Irish American and the Catholic press, he urged general monthly meetings in order to enable the members to exchange ideas and become better acquainted. William M. Higgins and Hon. Mark Ryan were introduced and spoke briefly upon the past work of the order and the necessity for unceasing interest and the attendance of members at meetings.

Ex-State President George J. Butler delivered a ringing address, declaring that Division 3 was always a factor in the Hibernian life of Louisville and had a glorious record. The Ancient Order, he said, has been a power for good always and will so continue. Pointing to the bright outlook for the future in the city and State, he urged that every effort be made to bring the membership in Louisville up to 5,000.

Magistrate P. T. Sullivan, declaring that membership in the Ancient Order elevates and builds up, pleaded for a great old initiation and banquet in the near future. John Heaslop, former Secretary of Division 3 and a pioneer member of the order, argued for a collective movement for the establishment and building of a Hibernian house where all could meet and for which a fund has already been started. This was a grand opportunity and the present was the time for the home project. Patrick Moran and P. T. Mullen were the last speakers and were loudly applauded when they said they were reminded of old times and were pleased to meet so many from all sections of the city. During the evening there was an abundant supply of Tarry's good smokers, and all present voted the night a most enjoyable one.

EDUCATION AND CATHOLICS.

According to the latest United States Consular reports six universities in Latin American countries were established before the first one in the territory that afterward became the United States. They were the universities of Mexico and Lima, founded in 1551; Santo Domingo, 1558; Bogota, 1572; Cordoba, 1613, and Sucre, 1633. All were founded under Catholic auspices and fostered by Catholic Bishops and priests.

CONTINUES TO IMPROVE.

The latest advices from Rome are to the effect that Pope Pius X. continues to make satisfactory progress in his convalescence. His strength has improved and Wednesday he rose from bed and was allowed to walk about his room. The Observatore Romano of Wednesday thus reported the Holy Father's condition.

"We are happy to be able to announce that the convalescence of the Holy Father proceeds regularly and that there is a progressive movement in his general condition. For the past three days His Holiness has been able to rise from his bed and to remain up several hours each day."

SHUN THEM.

Victor Grayson, the first member of the British Parliament to be returned exclusively as a Socialist, and who was expelled from that body for obnoxious tactics, has arrived in this country and is preaching a most horrible doctrine. Last week in Chicago he declared that everything, even murder, is justifiable in industrial warfare to gain the ends which the workers seek. In full sympathy with the Industrial Workers of the World, Grayson believes in sabotage, and also that any action would be justified which would prove effective. His wife, who is with him, proudly boasts that she is a militant suffragette and believes "the women of England are justified in burning houses and raising Cain generally as long as more gentle means have not been crowned with success." This pair should be shunned until they are dealt with for their hostile and criminal utterances.

MERELY RAVING.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, of New York, who poses as the representative of American womanhood, sailed yesterday for Europe as a delegate from this country to the woman suffrage convention that meets in Budapest next June. Just before her departure Mrs. Belmont said she approved of everything the "English wildwomen" have done, and that if woman suffrage is not effected in New York in 1915 militant methods may prevail there. The English suffragettes have organized "arson squads" and are burning down public and private property, and this is the class she will associate with in London and Paris. Many will hope that she remains there. The real American woman will stand against the bloodshed, arson, mob rule, hysteria and political trickery that Mrs. Belmont, Carrie Catt and the Pankhursts would inflict upon this country.

SPURN THE BRIBE.

Those who have followed this course agree with Father Peter Gannon and the True Voice that the Carnegie Foundation for educational purposes has developed into a gigantic trust that seeks to dominate and control all educational facilities in this country. It has set itself up as the judge of institutions that are "fit" to be indorsed and those that refuse to bow the knee to Carnegie's trust are given a low "rating" without regard to their standing in the eyes of real educators. The Carnegie investigators are sent out and after a merely superficial investigation— seldom lasting more than an hour—the rating is fixed. More than likely the "rating" has been fixed up in advance of the investigation—or if it has not, it might as well be for all the good the good the investigation does. We had a sample of the work of this Foundation in its report on educational institutions published a few months ago. Now the Foundation, which has lately taken up with a discredited medical association, is going to start out to "investigate" hospitals throughout the country. We can readily guess what methods will be pursued. The Carnegie Foundation has no use for any institution into which definite religion is admitted. So pronounced has this antipathy for religion been that only professors in colleges that are not under religious control have been declared eligible for pensions from the fund. Most non-Catholic colleges accepted the bribe without a word of protest and proceeded to change themselves into purely secular institutions. They sold whatever religion they had for Carnegie's gold. Catholic institutions spurned the bribe, and they were marked down accordingly. There is every reason to expect that the coming investigation will either slight or endeavor to give a low rating to Catholic hospitals. It would be just as well to ignore those self-constituted investigators and refuse them admission to Catholic institutions. They represent only a little clique of charlatans and self-praise artists anyway. Their ratings represent nothing worth having. We can get along without them and we should not hesitate to tell them so.

IGNORANCE?

The following clipping is taken from the local Baptist World, of which the Baptists must surely be proud of its efforts as an organ: "A sister of the Pope is dead. She could neither read nor write. It is said that Catholicism thrives on ignorance."

We would hardly diagnose the weakness of the above writer as due to ignorance, more likely a mental trouble.

GOOD WISHES.

The departure of John A. Baird from the newspaper ranks is a distinct loss to the profession, to which he was a credit. He carries with him the best wishes of all for success in his business career.

While definite action has not yet been taken by Prof. E. O. Holland, Superintendent of Schools, relative to the selection of the assistant authorized by the Board of Education, it is safe to predict the $3,000 position will be given a man from some other city than Louisville.

President Wilson will make no better appointment during his entire administration than that of James M. Lynch to the position of Public Printer. The President's selection has the almost unanimous approval of the publishers and printers of the entire country.

The children can not vote, hence they are ruled off the sidewalks by the Councilmanic special committee. There ought to be enough fathers in the General Council to defeat the proposed ordinance.

The emigration from Ireland last year, according to the annual report of the Registrar General, totaled 29,799, a decrease of 1,229 as compared with the previous year.

Most of us would like to reach that enviable state of worry when we could complain to the neighbors about the tax we are paying on our incomes.

BOOK TO READ.

"The Irish Contribution to America's Independence," by Thomas Hobbs Maginnis, Jr., and from the press of the Dolbe Publishing Company, Philadelphia, and advertised in another column, is a most commendable work. There ought to be at least one hundred thousand purchasers for this new book, not great as to bulk or number of pages, but greater than any yet published because of the excellence of its matter and the solid, practical character of the information which it offers to all who are in quest of the truth as to the real share which Ireland has had in the building of the great fabric of American political independence and the development of her commercial civilization. The author is himself a good example of the race whose fortunes in Transatlantic exile he has not ineffectually endeavored to trace. In his "Irish in America" the brilliant John Francis Maguire covered a great deal of ground in a sweeping survey of the social and religious achievement of the scattered children of the Gael, but Mr. Maginnis gives much more information that goes home to thousands with a personal claim. There is hardly a man or woman of Irish descent living in the United States who will not be interested in the painstaking search made by the author. Curiosity to know the truth has led him to inquire into the causes of the long-continued exodus of the Irish people and that quest led him to discover the strange fact that not alone were those who drove the Irish from their native soil their suppliers, but became their bitter slanderers and defamers as well. The result was the dropping of the scales from one honest pair of eyes and the awakening of deep affection for the land so beautiful and yet so mercilessly mistreated by a cruel and despotic step-sister.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.

Miss Grace Maloney, of 1427 West Jefferson street, who has been confined to her home for the past three months, was taken to St. Anthony's Hospital about two weeks ago, where she underwent an operation for goitre. The operation was one of the most successful of its kind ever performed at that institution. She is now at home and rapidly recovering. Dr. John R. Waihen performed the operation.

SOCIETY.

Mrs. Frederick Weiss has returned from a visit to friends in Lebanon Junction.

Miss Gertrude Edelen, of New Hope, is here to spend ten days with friends and relatives.

Miss Nell Conniff has returned from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Adele Conniff, at Irvington.

Maurice V. Holand, of San Jose, Cal., has been spending a week visiting friends in New Albany.

Mrs. Elbert Madden has been entertaining as her guest Miss Nell Flannigan, of Lebanon Junction.

Miss Mamie Gottbrath returned home Tuesday from a visit to Miss Virginia Barriger at Shelbyville.

Mrs. Mary Flood, of Portland, was last week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Adams, at Flora Heights.

Judge Matt O'Doherty and niece, Miss Kathleen Ewing, left Saturday for a sojourn at French Lick Springs.

Misses Honor and Benita Murphy, of the Highlands, were last week the guests of the Misses Farman at Okaloona.

Miss May Burke, Miss Mary Welsh and James Egan were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Murphy at Pewee Valley.

Miss Florence Pilcher was here from St. Mary's College last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Thomas Archer, in the Highlands.

Mrs. W. A. Tuohy and little daughter, Anna Lee, of Butte, Mont., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Kremer, Cherokee parkway.

Harry L. Swann has announced the marriage of his daughter, Miss Margie Swann, to Will Noonan, which took place on January 1, 1913.

Dr. Henry McKenna, now located in New York City, has returned to Fairfield to spend his vacation and visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McKenna, for several weeks.

John Kenney and daughter, Miss Mary, of Jeffersonville, have returned from Indianapolis, where they had gone to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Mary Finn.

Misses Elizabeth and Helen Swann, of Denver, students at St. Mary-of-the-Woods, have been spending their spring vacation with their grandfather, Harry L. Swann.

Mrs. M. J. McClusky, Mrs. B. F. Pemberton and Mrs. Edward Pope and baby, all of this city, formed a house party that was entertained by Mrs. Ed D. Shinnick last week at her home in Shelbyville.

William B. Curley and daughter, Miss Mary Curley, left Monday for Pensacola, Fla., to attend the annual meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. Before returning they will visit Key West and Havana.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry, of New Albany, have had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gleason, of Chicago. Friday Mrs. Gleason was honor guest at a social gathering at the home of Mr. Chester Williams, 2021 East Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Brennan, 1212 South Sixth street, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Loretta M. Brennan, and James S. Peak, of Elizabeth. Their marriage took place Saturday evening at St. Patrick's church, the Rev. James P. Cronin, V. G., performing the ceremony. The bride and groom were at the Seelbach until Monday, when they left for Elizabethtown, where they will reside. Mrs. Peak is a sister of Misses Mayne and Anna and Edward, Thomas and Raymond Brennan, and was popular in Catholic society circles.

TRINITY COUNCIL.

Large Attendance and New Members Make Meeting Lively.

A large gathering and many new members made the meeting of Trinity Council, Y. M. I., Monday night very interesting. All the committees exhibited excellent reports, the Membership Committee being especially complimented for its work in having fifty-eight candidates for the initiation on Sunday. One of the features of the meeting next Monday night will be the lecture by Rev. Father O'Neill, the eloquent Dominican missionary, which promises to be very instructive and to which the entire Y. M. I. is invited. The Building Committee will have time for discussion of the completed plans and all who desire to have a voice in this important matter are urged to be present. In addition a number of other important matters will be presented for final action, and no doubt the proceedings will be of interest to every member. Upon all sides there were expressions of regret when President Eckert reported the illness of Ben Hund and placed his name on the sick list.

CARDINAL AT BANQUET.

Lieutenant Governors from three States—Edward J. McDermott, of Kentucky; Martin H. Glynn, of New York, and David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts—were among the 800 guests at the annual banquet of the Knights of Columbus in Boston last Saturday night. The banquet was in honor of Cardinal William H. O'Connell, who spoke to the Knights of Columbus as an organization. He was followed by Lieut. Gov. McDermott, whose address was pronounced one of the most eloquent and forceful ever delivered at a banquet in Boston.

PRIZE COURT

Under Auspices of Young Ladies of St. Patrick's Church.

A euchre and lotto will be given in connection with the prize court which will be held under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church on Thursday and Friday, May 8 and 9, in the school hall, Thirteenth and Market streets, the proceeds of which will be donated to the fund being raised for St. Patrick's new school. The games will be called at 2:30 and 8 p. m. sharp. In connection with the prize court the following prizes will be disposed of: Brass bed, metal kitchen cabinet, drawn work pillow, satin wool-lined comfort, gold chain rosary, $5 in gold, linen lunch set valued at $150. Many handsome and novel prizes will be donated at the euchre and lotto in addition to the above awards. The young ladies in charge of the prize court have designated their prizes as "spoils of peace for successful claimants."

LAD TO REST.

Mrs. Annie Edelen, aged fifty-four, beloved wife of Robert H. Edelen, the well known distiller, succumbed Monday to an attack of acute indigestion at her home, 1420 South Fourth street. Mrs. Edelen was a woman of many Christian virtues, and her death is deeply mourned by friends and relatives throughout the State. Her remains were taken to Springfield, where the funeral took place from St. Dominic's church. Besides her husband she leaves six children—Robert H., Jr., John, Richard, Joseph and George Edelen and Mrs. J. A. Robertson—to whom the sympathy of many is extended.

POLICEMEN ON VACATION.

Patrolmen Robert W. Scanlon and Peter Maloney have been spending their annual vacations with friends in Cincinnati. J. J. Sullivan has been putting his time in on a fishing trip. Jerry O'Leary has been away from the city, and Pat Connors remained at home to attend the meeting of the Hiberniana and other societies of which he is a member and renew friendship with old friends. Quite a number on the force are on the sick list, but all are either on duty again or improving. Among them were George Kinney, Nick Carey, George Murphy, Lieut. Edward Callahan and A. C. Connelly.

CORNERSTONE LAYING.

Rev. Father Edward Boes, pastor of St. Aloysius church at Pewee Valley, has been doing excellent work for the new church he will have erected this summer for his growing congregation. The preliminaries are being arranged as rapidly as possible, and Father Boes expects to have the cornerstone laying during the month of June.

SACRED HEART.

The ladies of the Sacred Heart church are making splendid progress for the arrangements for the candy pulling to be given in the school hall at Seventeenth and Broadway for the benefit of the parochial school. They intend to have features that will entertain both young and old and make this one of the best ever given.

MACKIN COUNCIL.

Because of the strenuous day put in Sunday there was only a small attendance and little doing at the meeting of Mackin Council last Monday night. Mrs. Peak will be important reports for the next meeting and a decision will be reached upon the suggestion that a free basket picnic be given in the near future for the members and their families.

DOMINICAN CHURCH EUCHRE.

A euchre and lotto will be given for the benefit of St. Louis Bertrand's church debt fund at Bertrand Hall, Sixth street, near Oak, Friday afternoon and evening, May 9, and the committees have secured many valuable and handsome prizes, the ladies in charge hoping to have a record breaking number of prizes for the occasion.

LARGE COMMUNION CLASS.

One hundred and forty-four children will have the exquisite happiness of receiving their first holy communion tomorrow morning in St. Boniface church at the mass at 8 o'clock, for which much preparation has been made. Tomorrow afternoon there will be solemn vespers at 3 o'clock, when the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donoghue will administer the sacrament of confirmation.

ST. PETER'S.

Parents and children of St. Peter's parish are looking forward to Sunday, May 14, when a large class of children will receive their first holy communion in the morning and also on the same day be confirmed by Bishop O'Donoghue. This event is always marked by great pomp at St. Peter's church, the Knights of St. John in dress uniform acting as the guard of honor.

ROSARIES.

A beautiful amethyst rosary, large or medium, rolled gold chain, costs $1.25 retail price. We will send you one in a beautiful leatherette satinated box, together with a year's subscription to the Catholic children's monthly—The Child Apostle—for $1. If you can not afford the dollar, send us twenty-five cents for a year's subscription to The Child Apostle. Address The Child Apostle, 1133 McCormick building, Chicago, Ill.

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Twenty-four candidates received the first degree Monday night in Indianapolis.

Hennepin Council of Minneapolis will confer the third on a class of 100 on Memorial day.

Leo Council of Boone, Iowa, appropriated $100 for the victims of the cyclone sufferers of Omaha.

The newly organized council at Cincinnati put a large class through the first and second last Sunday.

Though only a small city, the Knights of Newark, N. Y., recently added sixty members to their council.

The Knights of Columbus, Ohio, are planning a children's party, and also a grand May ball for the near future.

Last Sunday forty gentlemen received the three degrees and became members of the council at Little Rock, Ark.

Holy Trinity Council of Bucyrus, Ohio, received into membership forty candidates at the initiation held two weeks ago.

Indianapolis will have a baseball team again this year. It is hoped to make it the best that has yet represented the council.

LeRoy Council of Syracuse had a "boys' night" this week for the youth of that city between the ages of fourteen and eighteen.

Augmented by fifty-seven new members Fort Wayne Council now numbers 700 and has the distinction of being the largest in Indiana.

The Knights of Central New York have under consideration the proposal to erect a monument on the site of the first mass in Onondaga county.

No movement thus far inaugurated presents greater opportunities or grander prospects than the national bureau plan devised by Supreme Master John H. Reddin.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing
the Past Week—General
News Notes.

It is essential that every member of Division 1 attend the next meeting.

The State officers of New York held a two days' session last week at Utica.

Each division would be benefited by a general meeting like that of last Monday night.

Division 4 meets next Monday night. All who can should be present to hear the reports.

Mobile Hibernians collected and forwarded quite a nice sum for the relief of the flood sufferers.

Bishop McFaul was the honor guest at the banquet of the Ancient Order last Tuesday night at Trenton,
N. J.

Fifteen hundred people witnessed the postponed St. Brigid's day celebration of the Indianapolis Ladies' Auxiliary.

Every Hibernian in the city was grieved when informed of the critical condition of Michael Sheehnn, of Division 3.

The two divisions at Nashua, N.
H., held a joint meeting the first part of the month and received over fifty into membership.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Columbus, Ohio, was among the first who undertook the work of gathering clothing for the flood sufferers.

Division 1 of Mobile, one of the most energetic and prosperous in the South, is arranging for the institution of a class of 100 in May.

At a largely attended meeting of Division 4 of Brooklyn resolutions endorsing John E. Redmond and the Irish party were unanimously adopted.

Mrs. McWhorter, State President of the Illinois auxiliary, has been making official visits and awakening interest in the divisions throughout the State.

Unusual interest is being evidenced in Iowa and many pupils will compete for the Irish history scholarships offered by the Hibernians of that State.

Twenty-three ladies were recently made members of the auxiliary at Quincy, Ill. Mrs. McWhorter, State President, honored the occasion with her presence.

The Nebraska Ladies' Auxiliary
State Board has instructed the State President, Mrs. Mary Rafferty, to start through the State to organize divisions of the auxiliary.

After attending solemn vesper services the Hibernians of Norwich, N. Y., enjoyed an elaborate banquet, at which they presented Rev. Father Prendergast a substantial check.

Fifty new members were initiated into the order at Chippewa Falls, Wis., in the presence of National President Regan and delegations from Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Ceylon.

A feature of the big fair and festival to be held by the Chicago Hibernians next month will be the ladies' police force in a contest for a diamond ring to be awarded the most beautiful Irish girl.

Our Ladies' Auxiliary has issued invitations for a select calico hop to be given at Schreiber's Hall, Twenty-sixth and Bank streets, on Monday evening, May 13. This will be a most enjoyable affair and will doubtless attract a large attendance.

The Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary presented an imposing spectacle last Sunday week at Pueblo, Col. With the Irish flag and the Stars and Stripes floating over them they visited St. Francis Xavier church and received holy communion in a body.

AMERICAN IRISH WAKE UP!

It is the practice of some ignorant and malignant people to ridicule and disparage the Irish race, and a great many Americans disavow Irish descent, or if they do acknowledge it, speak of it in a whisper. Why is this? It's because the American mind has been filled with the idea of "Anglo-Saxon superiority." Americans believe most of the settlers and those that secured the independence of this country were almost wholly English; and the Irish are looked upon as newcomers, driven here by potato famines.

The fault lies with Irish-Americans themselves. The English never miss an opportunity to boost their race; the newspapers prate about Anglo-Saxon bravery, fidelity, courtesy and enterprise, while a great many Irish are more apt to apologize for their existence in America.

The remedy lies with you. We have just published a book on "The Irish Contributions to America's Independence," which proves the achievements of the Irish race in the founding of America and the establishment of her independence and material progress were unparalleled by any other.

It contains practical information of the kind that men of the race should possess to enable them to refute the scurrilous attacks made upon them by the ignorant, and the strongest point in its favor is that it was written by a Protestant, who does full justice to the ancient Irish people.

Only 5,000 copies of the book have been printed, so if you want a copy, order it today. Simply send a dollar bill with your name and address. If you do not consider it the best book in the interests of the Irish in America you over read, return it and your dollar will be refunded.

MONUMENT TO FOUNDER.

A bronze monument will be unveiled next October in St. Louis in memory of Laclede, the Catholic founder of that city. Descendants of Laclede will present a replica of the bronze figure to the city of Deodis, France, where Laclede was born and where a descendant now is Mayor.

MILLION DOLLAR ACADEMY.

A beautiful academy for girls is being built in the picturesque Chester valley, between Philadelphia and Harrisburg, by the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The new institution will cost about $1,000,000 when completed and furnished.

TWIN CITY

Baseball League Plays Its
First Game Sunday Morning.

The Twin City Athletic Association, formerly known as the Catholic Baseball League, will inaugurate its season tomorrow and large crowds are expected to be present at the different grounds, as the splendid amateur hall furnished by this aggregation last summer has whetted the appetites of lovers of the game, who patronized this league chiefly on account of its slogan of clean ball, which President Frank Reichert has promised will be their motto this year. The schedule for tomorrow is as follows: Bruins vs. Champions at Shawnee Park No. 1, Spring Bank vs. Hephurns at Shawnee Park No.
2, Kentucky Oaks vs. Shamrocks at Shawnee Park No. 3 and Athletics vs. Cadets at Fairmont Park, New Albany.

CONSECRATED.

The Spanish Church of Our Lady of Hope, in West One Hundred and Fifty-sixth street, near Riverside drive, New York City, the costliest and most beautiful church of its size in this country, was solemnly consecrated on last Sunday by Cardinal Farley. The edifice, which was dedicated on July 21, 1912, is a gem of architectural beauty, in a setting of unusually magnificent surroundings, including majestic buildings and haute relief terraces. Archer M. Huntington, a son of the late Col. W. P.
Huntington, who is not a Catholic, not only gave the ground for the new church, but also contributed $30,000 toward its erection. Miss Maria de Barril raised $45,000 for the purpose of decorating the edifice.
Many of the furnishings were donated by non-Catholics.

WALNUT THEATER.

"The Shepherd of the Hills," next week's offering at the Walnut Theater, is the dramatic story of rough times in the Ozark days before the coming of the railroad, the period of huskings, house raisings, rough and ready settlement of disputes with the flat, laborious farming, highway robberies and so on. It is said to be a "red blood" virile play, yet one that has a deep message.
The fact that the novel from which the play was made has been a "best seller" is ample proof that it is what the public wants. The engagement calls for the usual midweek matinees, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

MADE FRIENDS HERE.

M. J. Fogarty and wife and children, of Elwood, Ind., enjoyed a pleasant visit to Louisville, and while here were the guests of Mr.
and Mrs. Frank Hueher at their home on Washington street. Mr.
Fogarty is one of the leading manufacturers in Elwood, and during his visit made many friends in Louisville.

KNIGHTS AT MOBILE.

The Knights of Columbus of Mobile, Ala., will hold an initiation on Sunday, May 4, conferring three degrees on a large class of candidates.
There will be in attendance on this occasion Knights from New Haven, Conn., Chicago, Birmingham, Ala., New Orleans and other cities. The candidates and Knights will attend mass at St. Joseph's church, and after marching back to the Knights of Columbus hall on St. Joseph's street the ceremonies will begin.
The celebrated Chicago degree team will have charge of excommunication of the degrees.

BASEBALL

Now Absorbing Topic on All Sides With Colonels Favorite.

Baseball from a local standpoint received the highest impetus in its history when a record breaking crowd attended the opening game between Louisville and Kansas City at Eclipse Park, only standing room being left when Attorney Thomas A. Barker escorted Mayor Head across the diamond to pitch the first ball. Interest in baseball here just now is at fever heat, the fans are all being confident that President Wathen is endeavoring to give the city a team which will be a contender at all stages, and it is universally believed that Manager Haysden can come pretty near standing pat on his present line-up, with Hulswitt included for second base, as many consider him the best all around player in the association, being a 300 hitter and possessing baseball generalship of a high caliber. But with the advent of Hulswitt it becomes a puzzle as to which fielder to take out. Even the many wise critics who attend regularly state they are unable to decide which to take out. Burch, Osborne or Stansbury, all going at a good clip. The present season promises to be a banner one financially and from an attendance standpoint, as the fans are ready and anxious to assist the management in again putting Louisville on the baseball map. Kansas City closes its series today and Joe Cantillon's husky Millers come tomorrow for three games.

RECENT DEATHS.

Many friends and relatives tender heartfelt sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Peters, 1314 East Breckinridge street, whose home was made desolate on Monday by the death of their two-year-old son, Roy Peters. The funeral was held Wednesday morning from St. Bridget's church, when Rev. Father Jensen officiated at the solemn mass of requiem.

The funeral of Thomas J. Carroll, who died last Saturday at his home, 1134 West Oak street, was held Monday morning from St. William's church, Rev. George Connor celebrating the solemn mass of requiem. Deceased was the brother of Patrolman John Carroll and was forty-seven years old. Besides his widow he leaves several children to mourn his death.

Monday morning the funeral of Miss Ella Alvey, daughter of George Alvey, 1233 Maple street, was held from the Sacred Heart church, Rev. Father Walsh being the celebrant of the mass of requiem. Miss Alvey's death followed an illness of tuberculosis and was not altogether unexpected. She was twenty-four years old, and is survived by her parents and three sisters and one brother—Mrs. Lizzie Newton, Mrs. Maggie McDermott, Miss Mary Lillie Alvey and Leo Alvey.

The death of Mrs. Emeline Hall, 958 South Twelfth street, removes from St. William's parish one of its oldest, most devout and highly respected members. Mrs. Hall was a native of Kentucky, but for over thirty-five years had been a resident of this city. She is survived by three sons, Edward, Rodney and Clay Hall, of Louisville; three sisters, Mrs. Adeline Shirkline, of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Harriet Williams and Miss Anna Curtsinger, of Louisville, and two brothers, Taylor Curtsinger, of Louisville, and Col. Curtsinger, of Woodlawn, Ky. Her funeral took place Monday morning from St. William's church and was the largest seen there for some time.

VINCENTIANS.

Religious Observance Will Mark Centenary of Founder.

Tomorrow the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Louisville will religiously celebrate the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Frederick Ozanam, the founder of the society, which is now recognized as the greatest and most beneficial charity organization in the world. For this occasion there will be a special Pontifical high mass at the Cathedral at 7:45 o'clock tomorrow morning, at which the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donnoghue will be the celebrant. At this mass all the members of the society in the city are expected to receive holy communion in a body. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock the members of the society and their friends will assemble at the Knights of Columbus hall on Fourth street to participate in the celebration prepared for the occasion. There will be two addresses, one by a noted layman, and the other by a celebrated priest noted for his oratory, and incidentally there will be a few remarks by others, suggested by the occasion. The pastors and the assistant priests of every church in the city have been invited, and no doubt will lend their presence to make this the greatest Vincentian celebration that Louisville has ever known. Every Vincentian whose heart is imbued with the spirit of the society, and who recognizes all that the society has been to him, will permit no excuse to keep him from this meeting.

PEWEE VALLEY.

The handsome carving set offered at the recent entertainment at Trinity Council Hall for the benefit of St. Aloysius church, Pewee Valley, was awarded to Mrs. J. Bickel, 529 Garden street, who held ticket No. 133. Mrs. J. A. Fugleis was given the ladies' shirt waist.

What the Club Plan Is-- What It Means to You:

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent. of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.
